On February 11, 2015, the Court ordered the parties to file their positions as to whether this case should be exempt from the ENE.¹ Docket No. 12. The Court has received those positions. Docket Nos. 14, 15. Based on the parties' responses, the Court determines that it should exempt this case from the ENE program.

¹ Pursuant to LR 16-6(c), the evaluating magistrate judge “may exempt any case from early neutral evaluation on the judge’s own motion.”

1 Accordingly, the Court hereby VACATES the ENE session (Docket No. 9) and DENIES
2 as moot Defendants' request for exemption from personal attendance at the ENE (Docket No. 11).

3 IT IS SO ORDERED.
